

PRESS RELEASE – I / 11 / 2009

KONKAN RAILWAY OBSERVES VIGILANCE AWARENESS WEEK

As per the guidelines of Central Vigilance Commission, Vigilance Awareness Week is being observed in all the Central Government Offices including the Office of Konkan Railway Corporation from 3rd to 7th November. As a part of the Vigilance Awareness Week, Shri B P Tayal, Managing Director of Konkan Railway, in his message, exhorted upon the Officers & Staff of KRCL for leading the honest and non corrupt life by one and all and to weed out corruption at all the levels. Accordingly a pledge of integrity and transparency was administered to all its employees at Corporate Office, Belapur, Navi Mumbai.

The Week is observed by all government bodies every year to educate people about the hazards of corruption. The aim of observing the week is to instill vigilance consciousness in employees and make each employee of Konkan Railway a Vigilant Member.

As a part of the Vigilance Awareness Week, the Vigilance department of Konkan Railway has organized Quiz, Essay and Slogan competitions for its employees. Vigilance Awareness banners and posters are also displayed at all prominent places in the office premises so that the required message is sent down the line for adopting Clean, Transparent and Non-corrupt practices in the Administration.